HOUSE IN FAVOR OF REPEAL OF EMBARGO ON ARMS SHIPMENT

Mere Formalities Remain Before United States Munitions and Granary Available to Belligerents On "Cash and Carry" Terms—All Risks Must Be Taken by Purchasers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP).—The House of Representatives voted today to repeal the United States embargo on arms shipments to the belligerents, approving as did the Senate last week the Roosevelt Administration's policy of "cash and carry" sales.

The 243 to 181 decision left the neutrality bill just short of becoming law. Remaining stages of the legislative process, regarded generally as mere formalities, were expected to take no more than a day or so, with the bill becoming effective early next week at the very latest.

The result of today's action, taken in a crowded session with excitement, was to open the United States' vast supplies to the nations engaged in war. On dozens of eastern seaboard jetties, goods falling into the instruments of war categories, and particularly airplanes wanted by the Allies, have been stacked up for days awaiting the action of Congress.

GOODS FOR CASH

Today's vote meant that soon they would be released for shipment. But before they can leave the country, title must pass to the belligerent governments purchasing them. Since the bill also forbids loans or credits of any character to the government at war, it also requires that they pay cash.

Moreover, it requires the purchasers furnish non-American ships for the dangerous process of transporting their purchases across the submarine-infested North Atlantic. It forbids United States ships to enter belligerent ports in the European area or to sail through "combat areas" still to be demarcated by President Roosevelt. United States citizens are forbidden to travel on belligerent vessels.

When the House approached the crucial decision today the parliament continued on Page 2, Column 6

COMMISSIONER IS APPOINTED

Charles J. Burchell, Halifax Lawyer, to Represent Canada in Australia

OTTAWA, Nov. 2 (CP).—Charles J. Burchell, K.C., of Halifax, has been appointed Canadian High Commissioner to Australia. Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced tonight following a Cabinet meeting.

The appointment was in line with an announcement by the Prime Minister during the special war session of Parliament last September when he said that to assist in co-ordinating the Empire war effort, high commissioners would be appointed to other British Dominions.

For many years Canada has maintained a high commissioner in London, but Mr. Burchell's appointment is the first to any of the other Dominions. Similar appointments will be made to New Zealand, South Africa and Elze.

TAKING SIMILAR ACTION

South Africa sent an "accredited representative" to Canada over a year ago and a high commissioner to Canada was appointed recently by the Government of Elze, Australia and New Zealand are expected to follow suit shortly.

Mr. Burchell is the senior member of the legal firm of Burchell, Smith, Parker & Fogo, of Halifax. In addition to his legal practice, he has taken an active part in the direction of maritime industries.

For many years he has been active in international and inter-empire affairs.

War Prisoners Much Impressed

LONDON, Nov. 2 (CP).—German war prisoners in the United Kingdom "are being well fed and well treated and have shown themselves much impressed by the marked difference between actual conditions in this country and the picture which had been put before them in Germany," War Secretary Leslie Hore-Belisha told the House of Commons today.

"They have access to our newspapers," he added, in reply to a query.

Netherlands Queen Inspects Defences

Despite the repeated assurances of Chancellor Hitler that Dutch neutrality will be respected, the Netherlands defences are being kept in a state of readiness for any eventuality. Queen Wilhelmina is shown here inspecting asbestos-garbed air defence men. Yesterday, by royal decree, martial law was established in parts of eight provinces as a precautionary measure.

Conservative Leader Delivers Blistering Attack Against C.C.F. Party in Legislature, Declaring Statements Were Made to Discourage Canada's Effort in Empire's Need

ADOPTING the unanimous course in British Parliaments since the outbreak of the war, R. L. Maitland, K.C., provincial Conservative chieftain and leader of the official Opposition in the British Columbia Legislature, offered the full support of his party to the Provincial Government yesterday in the House, in a ringing speech that won for him a sustained ovation.

LORD NUFFIELD HAS WAR POST

Serving as Director-General of Maintenance in British Air Ministry

LONDON, Nov. 2 (CP).—Lord Nuffield is settling down to a wartime job which will not keep him from the work he began some time ago—that of giving away a fortune accumulated as a motor manufacturer who began as a bicycle repairman.

Appointed Wednesday as director-general of maintenance in the British Air Ministry, to serve without pay, the great philanthropist has the job of "general supervision" over the supply services of the Royal Air Force with a view to their co-operation with the repair service.

Crew Scuttles German Ship In Caribbean

LONDON, Nov. 2 (CP).—An Admiralty spokesman said today that the 4,327-ton German tanker Emmy Friedrich, carrying 40,000 barrels of Mexican oil, was scuttled by her crew in the Caribbean Sea, October 24, to avoid capture by a British cruiser.

The Emmy Friedrich sailed from Tampico, Mexico, on October 20, with her oil cargo. Clearance papers showed the ship was bound for Mexico, but shortly after the departure foreign intelligence agents in Mexico City said they were investigating reports she would serve as a supply ship for German submarine raiders in the Western Atlantic.

Greek-Italian Notes Expressing Desire for Friendly Relations Published—Rome Expects to Conclude Treaty With Bulgaria

ROME, Nov. 3 (AP).—An exchange of Greek-Italian notes expressing a desire to give their friendly relations a "more concrete form" was published today. Observers said the notes showed that Italy is working to improve her non-belligerent status to strengthen her influence in Southeastern Europe.

Coupled with a reliable report that Italy sign a new Italian-Bulgarian treaty shortly, the Greek-Italian exchange lent emphasis to statements of informed Fascists recently that Rome has no intention

NEW CORPS ANNOUNCED

Social Welfare Officers to Care for Comfort and Needs of Soldiers

LONDON, Nov. 2 (CP).—Creation of a special corps of social welfare officers assigned solely to looking after the comfort and personal needs of Great Britain's "Tommys" was announced today by War Secretary Leslie Hore-Belisha.

Arrangements are well advanced for introduction of the new organization, he said. Lieut.-Gen. Sir John Brown, director-general of the territorial army, has been named War Office adviser on the plan, working under the adjutant-general.

Mr. Hore-Belisha told the Commons today that the new social welfare officer would be appointed to each general headquarters and to each division. It would be his assignment to make recommendations and consult with the command on any question involving welfare of the soldiers.

Each territorial army association has been asked to appoint one or more social welfare officers, who may either be civilians or retired officers.

ISSUANCE OF COMMISSIONS
The War Office announced tonight no further permanent regular commissions are to be issued during the war except in certain specified cases.

With these exceptions, all commissions will be "emergency commissions" in the land force for duration of the war.

It was explained that at the end of the war permanent regular commissions might be offered to selected officers who are serving on other forms of commissions and who wish to make the army their career. Such officers will be given priority dates for all purposes to correspond with their length of service during the war.

The specified exceptions include: (a) cadets already in training at the cadet colleges at outbreak of war, and any other candidate at universities, officers of the supplementary reserve and territorial army, and army cadets who had already qualified for permanent commissions or been accepted for admission to cadet colleges; (b) selected warrants for lieutenant and quartermaster and similar categories.

Finnish Delegation Attends Soviet Supreme Council Before Resuming Negotiations

MOSCOW, Nov. 2 (AP).—Reopening of Finnish-Russian negotiations on further extension of Russian power to the West was delayed tonight while the newly-arrived Finnish delegation watched the Supreme Soviet unanimously approve admission of Western White Russia to the Soviet Union.

Most foreign observers agreed the attendance of the Finns at the joint session of Parliament assured the possibility of a peaceful settlement of the Finnish-Russian problem.

Finland's five-man delegation, headed by Dr. Juho Paasikivi, arrived this morning for the third in the series of talks precipitated by the westward drive of Russian influence.

WILL RELEASE LARGE ORDERS

Immense Quantity of Various War Necessities Going to Allies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (AP).—A flood of European war orders—Administration quarters expected to total $1,000,000,000 in the next few weeks—will be released by repeal of the United States arms embargo.

Even before the House of Representatives today voted to repeal the embargo a French purchasing mission contracted for 4,000 aircraft engines from two Eastern manufacturers at a price of approximately $50,000,000, officials were informed. A British mission has been negotiating for some 1,600 training planes. The arms embargo halted delivery on some 600 aircraft in September. In addition to these, the French contemplate purchases of some 3,800 planes, and the British 4,000. It was reported authoritatively. A Swedish mission has been negotiating for upwards of 250 aircraft and a Belgian mission for 200.

A WIDE RANGE

The British-French Allies have stressed their need for warplanes of all types, but their purchases are expected to cover a wide range of other products, including:

Motor trucks and motorcycles, clothing, machine tools, field ranges, explosives, foodstuffs, surgical instruments, hospital supplies, searchlights, gas masks, pontoon equipment, water purifying units, ambulances, radio sets, telephones and radio compasses.

An immediate effect of formal repeal of the embargo, expected early next week at the latest, will be to permit delivery of some 300 warplanes for Britain and France which have been completed since the embargo was imposed.

The King Makes History by Pinning on Medals in Airdrome Hangar "Somewhere in England"—Inspects Over Thousand Airmen

LONDON, Nov. 2 (AP).—The King made history today in the No. 1 hangar of an important Royal Air Force station "somewhere in England" when he conferred decorations for gallantry on six young English flyers.

His Majesty pinned on the medals and shook hands warmly. It was the first time in hundreds of years that an English King has decorated men "on active service" in Great Britain and it was the first investiture in an airdrome hangar.

Observers pointed out that while King George V decorated many men during the first Great War, they were never on actual active service while receiving their decorations but had retired from the fighting lines. The airmen decorated today were in what is now considered a front line fighting position.

First decorations of the war were

Secret Plans Disclosed at Conference in London With High Military Authorities of Great Britain —Chamberlain Refers to Demonstration Of United Determination of Empire

Molotoff's Speech Seen as Disappointment for Germany

LONDON, Nov. 2 (AP).—Secret plans of Great Britain and France to defeat the land, sea and air forces of Germany were disclosed to Hon. T. A. Crerar and other Dominion representatives at a conference today with high military authorities.

The Allied strategy was outlined in detail to the Empire statesmen, even as the British Government was being pressed in Parliament to hasten publication of its war aims.

The Canadian Minister of Mines and Resources and his colleagues sat in a side gallery of the House reserved for members who cannot get a seat in the crowded little chamber while Prime Minister Chamberlain presented his weekly progress report of the war.

Mr. Chamberlain called the ministerial conference a "striking demonstration of the united determination of the Empire."

SOME DISAPPOINTMENT

The Prime Minister dismissed the speech of Soviet Premier Vyacheslav Molotoff by saying it "occasioned some disappointment" in Berlin and refusing "to disturb myself over flights of fancy in which M. Molotoff indulged when describing the aims of the Allies."

The Russian Premier Tuesday accused the Allies of fighting Germany primarily to protect their colonial empires, and declared the restoration of Poland could not be considered. He dwelt at length on friendly relations with Germany, but made no mention of any aid other than economic and political to Berlin.

Prime Minister Chamberlain reported the British Expeditionary Forces were strengthening their defences on their sector of the Western Front.

CONFIDENCE UNSHAKEN

Despite the loss of merchant ships, "nothing has occurred to shake our confidence in our ability to overcome the submarine menace," Mr. Chamberlain told the House.

Referring to the Empire, Mr. Chamberlain said "We have had in the last few days a striking demonstration of the united determination of the Empire."

SLOVAKS RIOT IN BRATISLAVA

Police Stand Idle as Crowds Protest Settlement of Munich

BRATISLAVA, Nov. 2 (AP).—A crowd of several thousand Slovaks rioted and sacked two Hungarian newspaper offices here tonight following a public meeting called to protest one of the results of the Munich settlement.

Unchecked by police, the crowd sacked the premises of the Hungarian newspapers and also the headquarters of the Hungarian minority party.

The meeting which preceded the disorders was called to protest Hungary's acquisition of Slovak territory exactly a year ago today. The exchange of territory had been provided for in the Munich settlement of a few weeks before.

POLICE TAKE NO PART

The rioting started at 9 p.m., and continued until shortly before midnight. Police were said to have looked on with folded arms.

The crowds swarmed through the Hungarian quarter in which one-third of Bratislava's 125,000 inhabitants live. Hungarian shops were smashed and signs in the Hungarian language were torn down.

"Down with Hungary," the demonstrators shouted. "We got reviled from Poland; now it's Hungary's turn to give back what she took."

Messenger Boy Tells of Daylight Attack by Two Men in Vancouver Chinatown

VANCOUVER, Nov. 2 (CP).—Police continued a city-wide search tonight for two armed bandits who robbed Jack Libby drug store messenger boy of $400 in a daylight holdup in Chinatown here.

Libby said he thought the bandits were each about twenty-five years old and described how they crept up from behind and ordered him down, a late at the point of a gun. The youth was making a customary Thursday delivery of cash from a store to the head office of the company's chain of stores when the attack took place.

Libby thought the men boarded a street car after the robbery.

The Government is taking full responsibility for the carrying on of Canada's part in the war, and therefore they are entitled to what ever praise or blame goes with their acts.

Certainly they will have to take full responsibility for the very regrettable lack of military preparation which has been apparent to all observers since the declaration of war, as our party in the sessions of 1938 and 1939 repeatedly warned them of Canada's unpreparedness; but, despite those warnings, the war came upon us with a serious shortage of clothes and shoes for the soldiers and a general lack of defence equipment, though over $100,000,000 has been spent by the National Defence Department during the past three years.

However, considering everything, the course followed by the Government in keeping full control of our programme is probably best for Canada, as, under our parliamentary system, an alert and constructively critical opposition is second only in importance to the Government itself. This, of course, suggests that in future we will feel ourselves at liberty to criticize when that action seems to be in the public interest, and not continue, as we have been doing, to avoid criticism of the Government when we felt certain incidents deserved it.

Since I am making a statement, there is another matter of importance against which I must protest strongly, namely, the continuance of political patronage and favoritism in Canada's war work. There has been a steady stream of letters from all parts of Canada to me complaining of this, as a result of which I wrote to the Prime Minister, on September 22 last, protesting against the practice. In the special session I had very strongly suggested the elimination of political patronage, and Mr. King was very enthusiastic in his reply endorsing my position, but according to my reports the practice is still in control in many if not all parts of Canada.

Only yesterday a letter from an important centre in the Maritime Provinces informed me that a permanent official who handles Government purchases had refused the writer's company the privilege of submitting estimates because the official said he "had no instructions to change the regular (Liberal) list that he had been using." A day or two before that, a letter from British Columbia told me of a reliable company there being refused business because they were not "on the preferred patronage list." And I have had protests along similar lines from nearly all other important points in Canada.

I submit that if Canada is to get united war effort it is high time that this pernicious system should be eliminated. When all are making sacrifices it is no time for political favoritism.

WANTS JANUARY SESSION
In view of these incidents—and many others could be quoted—it should be made clear that the Official Opposition has not abdicated its duty as a constructive critic in the interests of Canada and the Empire. It might also be suggested that the House of Commons be called early in January in order that we may have a balance sheet before us in regard to all war work with the accompanying parliamentary privilege of examination, inquiry, and discussion.

Canada needs a great national effort to co-ordinate our resources for the purpose of carrying out our part in the war. All loyal Canadians want this, and they are not getting

Political Patronage Continues Declares Conservative Leader

Dr. Manion Says Government Must Take Full Responsibility for Lack of Military Preparation—Intends to Offer Constructive Criticism

OTTAWA, Nov. 2 (AP).—Political patronage and favoritism "continues" in the King Government's administration of Canada's war effort, Hon. R. J. Manion, National Conservative leader, charged today in a statement. "I must protest strongly the continuance of political patronage and favoritism in Canada's war work," said the Opposition leader.

The text of Dr. Manion's statement follows:
"I am making a statement, there is another matter of importance against which I must protest strongly, namely, the continuance of political patronage and favoritism in Canada's war work. There has been a steady stream of letters from all parts of Canada to me complaining of this, as a result of which I wrote to the Prime Minister, on September 22 last, protesting against the practice. NO CONSULTATION
It is true that in the special war session called early in September to give authority to the Government to organize Canada's war effort, the National Conservative party loyally offered to co-operate with the Government in advancing that programme, but since the close of the session on September 13 our party have never been called in for consultation or advice, nor have we been given any information other than what we read in the daily press.

RESERVE PLEA ON SHOOTING CHARGE

William C. Fletcher Is Remanded Until Next Thursday on Bail of $4,000

Charged that, with intent to do grievous bodily harm, he did unlawfully wound Jack Humphries, aged sixteen years, William C. The charge arose from the shooting of Humphries on Halloween. The young man was wounded in the leg.

Sustained cheering followed Mr. Maitland's declaration, and broke in repeatedly on his address as he proceeded in an exhorting denunciation of what he said were "supercilious statements on the part of certain leaders of the C.C.F. party to discourage Canada's effort in the war."

SCORES C.C.F. LEADERS

To a House tense and motionless with interest, Mr. Maitland continued:

"In the war the morale of the people is of more importance than anything else. We took our stand for a united Canada. That is the message that Canada must send abroad to the world. I am sorry to say that that course was not accepted by all parties in the House. I, for one, refuse to identify the thousands of people who supported the C.C.F. in the last election with the stand taken by some of their members in this House in the last few weeks."

"There is only one test that any of us can apply to policy or action these days. Will it advance or retard Canada's war effort? Statements have been made by certain C.C.F. members that match strangely with this test. I say that these statements have been made surreptitiously to discourage Canada's effort in the war."

Mr. Maitland declared that the Opposition Leader referred to a leading editorial in The Federationist of September 7, 1939, wherein he averred, reference had been made to "the dogs of war being unleashed," and that cited as an opportunity for the C.C.F. to build up its influence in Canada.

"Messages like that going over to Germany can have what effect?" Mr. Maitland flatly asked.

MEETING IN PARK

Three years ago, he continued, on May 2, 1936, The News-Herald, Vancouver, had reported a meeting at Stanley Park in which 8,000 persons had assembled. Cheers, it was reported, had greeted the delegates from the Young Communist League, on-to-Regina strikers, the Communist Party of Canada, and Chinese "Reds."

Dr. Lyle Telford, M.P.P., and Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, M.P.P., had addressed the meeting. The loudest reception had greeted a delegation from the Communist Party of Canada.

Of the same meeting Mr. Maitland continued, it was said that crowds of every creed and nationality, reverently and with bared heads, stood while the "Red Flag" and the "Internationale" had been sung, and "comrades who had died for the cause" had been remembered.

Reading again, Mr. Maitland told of a "keynote speech" in which Dr. Lyle Telford was reported to have appealed for unity, and to have said that he was sick of talk, and that action was needed. Mrs. Steeves was reported as stating: "The workers should realize that this is their country. They should take it, and run it themselves." He asked were these reports correct?

"A NEW DAWN"

Tom Evans, leader of the Communist Party of Canada, had been cited as the next speaker, and was quoted as saying that "he saw the door to a new dawn and a new era opening."

"God forbid that any dawn that compares with what has happened in Russia will ever come to our land," Mr. Maitland thundered, pounding his desk with his hand. Desk-thumping members hailed his speech for a while.

Resuming, Mr. Maitland read from a report in The Daily Province, dated September 30, which referred to a speech by Grant McNeil, M.P., at the Moose Hall, Vancouver. Mr. McNeil was reported as stating: "Canadian unity cannot stand armed intervention in European struggles every twenty-five years."

He asked had Mr. McNeil said that, and what would be its effect abroad if he had?

The Nelson News on October 16 last had carried an account attributing to Colin Cameron, M.P.P., the statement that the C.C.F. was opposed to the dispatch of an expeditionary force for several reasons. Mr. Cameron had been reported as suggesting that the main purpose of sending the force would be "to whip up public sentiment in the suppression of civil liberties."

What, asked Mr. Maitland, would be the effect of such a remark in Germany? Would it advance or retard Canada's war effort?

C.C.F. LEADER ASSAILED
Turning to Harold Winch, M.P.P., leader of the C.C.F. party in the Legislature, Mr. Maitland read on The Trail Times on October 20 had printed a telegraph dispatch con-

I am sorry to say that that course was not accepted by all parties in the House. I, for one, refuse to identify the thousands of people who supported the C.C.F. in the last election with the stand taken by some of their members in this House in the last few weeks."

"There is only one test that any of us can apply to policy or action these days. Will it advance or retard Canada's war effort? Statements have been made by certain C.C.F. members that match strangely with this test. I say that these statements have been made surreptitiously to discourage Canada's effort in the war."

Mr. Maitland declared that the Opposition Leader referred to a leading editorial in The Federationist of September 7, 1939, wherein he averred, reference had been made to "the dogs of war being unleashed," and that cited as an opportunity for the C.C.F. to build up its influence in Canada.

"Messages like that going over to Germany can have what effect?" Mr. Maitland flatly asked.

MEETING IN PARK

Three years ago, he continued, on May 2, 1936, The News-Herald, Vancouver, had reported a meeting at Stanley Park in which 8,000 persons had assembled. Cheers, it was reported, had greeted the delegates from the Young Communist League, on-to-Regina strikers, the Communist Party of Canada, and Chinese "Reds."

Dr. Lyle Telford, M.P.P., and Mrs. Dorothy Steeves, M.P.P., had addressed the meeting. The loudest reception had greeted a delegation from the Communist Party of Canada.

Of the same meeting Mr. Maitland continued, it was said that crowds of every creed and nationality, reverently and with bared heads, stood while the "Red Flag" and the "Internationale" had been sung, and "comrades who had died for the cause" had been remembered.

Reading again, Mr. Maitland told of a "keynote speech" in which Dr. Lyle Telford was reported to have appealed for unity, and to have said that he was sick of talk, and that action was needed. Mrs. Steeves was reported as stating: "The workers should realize that this is their country. They should take it, and run it themselves." He asked were these reports correct?

"A NEW DAWN"

Tom Evans, leader of the Communist Party of Canada, had been cited as the next speaker, and was quoted as saying that "he saw the door to a new dawn and a new era opening."

"God forbid that any dawn that compares with what has happened in Russia will ever come to our land," Mr. Maitland thundered, pounding his desk with his hand. Desk-thumping members hailed his speech for a while.

Resuming, Mr. Maitland read from a report in The Daily Province, dated September 30, which referred to a speech by Grant McNeil, M.P., at the Moose Hall, Vancouver. Mr. McNeil was reported as stating: "Canadian unity cannot stand armed intervention in European struggles every twenty-five years."

He asked had Mr. McNeil said that, and what would be its effect abroad if he had?

The Nelson News on October 16 last had carried an account attributing to Colin Cameron, M.P.P., the statement that the C.C.F. was opposed to the dispatch of an expeditionary force for several reasons. Mr. Cameron had been reported as suggesting that the main purpose of sending the force would be "to whip up public sentiment in the suppression of civil liberties."

What, asked Mr. Maitland, would be the effect of such a remark in Germany? Would it advance or retard Canada's war effort?

C.C.F. LEADER ASSAILED
Turning to Harold Winch, M.P.P., leader of the C.C.F. party in the Legislature, Mr. Maitland read on The Trail Times on October 20 had printed a telegraph dispatch con-

SECOND PENALTY LEVIED ON TAXES

Third Sum of 1 Per Cent to Be Applied November 16 and 3 Per Cent on December 2

A second penalty of 1 per cent was applied to unpaid current taxes yesterday by the city assessor and collector's department. Another 1 per cent will be added on November 16, and a final penalty of 3 per cent on December 2.

Figures showed that 79.52 per cent, or $1,229,763.74, of the 1939 levy of $1,546,525.49 had been received up to the end of October, compared with $1,274,621.13, or 78.99 per cent, of the $1,614,658.83 levy last year at the corresponding date.

Taxes in arrears totaled $408,364.36 at the beginning of the year, and of that sum $246,704.23, or 49.5 per cent, was on hand at the end of last month. The Pimlico Special for the beginning of last year totaled $584,236.85; and at the end of October in 1938 the sum on hand was $255,578, or 43.5 per cent.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2 (AP).—Challdon was running strictly on his heart when he won the Pimlico Special for he made the grind on an injured hoof that might have caused him serious damage, it was learned today.

Back when pogo sticks were the rage, a research project was planned by W. K. Kellogg. Food chemists, nutritionists, and medical specialists from great universities have taken part in it. And the verdict of these men, like that of All-Bran's millions of users, is that ALL-BRAN is a tried and proven means of combating this common form of constipation.

HOUSE VOTES FOR REPEAL OF EMBARGO

mentary situation was this: The Chamber had received from the Senate a bill embodying the Administration's plan to repeal the existing law's embargo on arms shipments to warring powers and substitute the "cash and carry" plan.

The House, which passed last session a bill containing an embargo on "lethal weapons" but not on airplanes, had decided earlier this week to refer the whole subject to a Senate-House conference to iron out the differences.

Today the Chamber had to decide the vital question of what instructions it should give its conference. Representative Sharkey (Connecticut) put in a motion to order them to demand an arms embargo. The House flatly rejected this, 243 to 181, and the great fight was over.

THE FINAL STEPS

The Senate-House conference will meet tomorrow morning. Everyone expects them to approve a bill closely following the Senate measure. The next step, expected to be taken tomorrow or Saturday, is for the Senate and House to ratify the conference report finally. Then the measure goes to President Roosevelt for his signature.

Admits Unlawful Use of Automobile

In the Reginald police court yesterday afternoon, Ernest W. Roberts pleaded guilty to a charge of taking a motor car without the owner's consent and was remanded by Magistrate Henry C. Hall until 9:45 o'clock this morning for sentence.

The young man, who was not represented by counsel, told the court that he had been drinking and wished to go to a dance. He took the car and was apprehended when returning it later.

British Control of Seas and Blockade Important in War

Dr. F. Walker, Deputy Minister of Mines, Tells Kismen Club That Empire Will Be Victorious If Present Supremacy Is Retained

Great Britain maintained control of the seas and kept supplies moving to the United Kingdom, and at the same time enforced a German blockade, the Allies would emerge victorious from the war, Dr. F. Walker, deputy minister of mines, told a dinner meeting of the Kismen Club last night.

Speaking on world minerals and resources, and their relation to the war, Dr. Walker illustrated his address with charts which showed the mineral wealth of various countries. They told the story of Great Britain's supremacy in all minerals, with the exception of mercury and molybdenum, and Germany's deficiency of materials for carrying on a lengthy war.

Germany was not in good shape today, as far as minerals were concerned, and it was for that she was fighting, in order to make herself a world power, the speaker said.

WOULD CRIPPLE STATES

If the United States lost the freedom of the seas, Germany could cripple her in a few months by cutting off export of rubber, tin, and other metals to America.

However, Great Britain and the United States could insure the peace of the world through command of over half the world's minerals and fuels.

Dr. Walker advocated an international organization that would control the natural resources of the world and their distribution, within reasonable limits.

GERMANY CAN'T WIN

"I don't think there is a chance in the world that Germany will win," the speaker said. "If we hadn't stepped in this year there is every chance that Germany might have won out," he added. The speaker was referring to the Nazis' systematic conquest of smaller countries that would supply much-needed materials.

Dr. Walker stated that Canada had the basic materials to make it a great industrial nation. In this regard, he said that industry, labor and capital should be moved to Canada when this war was over.

He also spoke of Russia's aims to secure control of valuable nickel deposits in Northern Finland, shortly to be mined by American capital. He said there was an excess of copper within the Empire, but Germany did not have enough to fill her needs.

Dr. Walker added that zinc was the only metal in which Germany was self-sufficient.

The Empire's production of lead, zinc and copper was ample today, as compared with the unfavorable situation that existed in 1914, he declared.

Walter Miles introduced the speaker, who was thanked by Stanley Martin.

On the second Assize Court conviction of possession of opium and cocaine he was sentenced to eighteen months at Okalla to run concurrently with the first sentence and an additional fine of $200 and in default of payment an additional three months. Use of National Credit in Interest-Free Loans Suggested in House

Universal franchise for all citizens in Canada, exclusive of their race or religion, was advocated in the Provincial Legislature yesterday by Captain C. R. Bull, Liberal member for South Okanagan, who closed debate for the day.

Harold Winch, leader of the C.C.F. party in the House, adjourned argument, and will speak first when the House resumes at 2:30 p.m. today.

Captain Bull, speaking seriously and earnestly on what he considered a major war in Europe, appealed for action now to prepare the way for conditions that might be expected then.

USE OF CREDIT

He devoted much of his speech to a advocacy of monetary policies he had advanced last year in a similar debate; urging the use of national credit, by means of interest-free loans from banks for public purposes.

With the world dissolving into outright hates and rapidly mounting debts, conditions of stress and strain could be expected as war's aftermath, and would have to be met in the spirit of co-operation and tolerance, Captain Bull said. The danger was that Fascism and Communism would struggle for possession after the war was over, to the eclipse of democracy and all that it meant. This collapse could be averted, if the proper steps were taken now, he declared.

Captain Bull sketched it as the duty of business to facilitate public effort that employment would be found for people able to work. If that meant the use of credit, credit should be used, he asserted, in conclusion.

NANAIMO MAN IS FREED BY JURY

Christopher J. Neilson Acquitted of Manslaughter on Instruction By Presiding Judge

NANAIMO, Nov. 2 (P).—Christopher J. Neilson was acquitted by an Assize jury today on a charge of manslaughter laid after the death of J. Murphy in an altercation at Campbell River, October 7.

Acquittal was on the instruction of Mr. Justice A. I. Fisher. Evidence at the trial indicated that blows had been struck when the men, attending a dance, became involved in a dispute over Adolf Hitler's policies.

Counsel for the accused claimed that evidence of Dr. W. A. Richardson, of Campbell River, indicated that the hemorrhage at the base of the skull caused the death of Murphy.

The doctor, he said, also disclosed that the hemorrhage might have been caused from disease, thus making death under aggravation of excitement a natural result.

By Spy

From a distance La Guira (pronounced La Wyra) might have been a town on the banks of the Rhine. Its low, multi-colored buildings clung to the steep mountain sides in horizontal disorder, with occasional bulges where the hills fell back a little and then played out again along that steep and scraggy foreshore.

Supporting mountains rose bold and wolf-toothed to a cloudy sky. Waves whipped their bases savagely, as if trying to beat them back into the interior, or at any rate to perpetually punish them for having thus encroached upon the sea. And in all there was embodied a certain fierce grandeur—relentless warfare 'twixt the mountains and the sea.

The above more or less etches La Guira from a distance, but personal contact with the actual "city and environs" revealed that La Guira was hardly the ideal place for picnics, Morris dancing or other of the cleaner practices. Mud and refuse seemed to dominate the place, and on that specific day of visitation a rude breeze only irritated and agitated a thousand smells and floating incubi, that on a still day might have been forgiven.

And everywhere in La Guira the great South American industry (floating) was flagrantly displayed. Never have I beheld so many little black bottles curled higgledy-piggledy around wharves, railway stations, curbstones, benches, etc., all deeply sleeping, or at any rate so doped with indolence and inertia that one would have concluded that a cloud of chloroform had passed by and laid the entire population of La Guira by the heels.

Accidentally, La Guira is the port of entry and exit for Caracas (the capital of Venezuela), which they say is a right fine city, "way back in the hills of the interior. And there's a strange electric railroad that connects those towns. I watched it (a cheap looking aluminum car) as it squealed from its sea-level station, to then suddenly take a left turn and climb almost perpendicularly up the mountains. From then on I saw silvery flashes as it appeared and disappeared over peaks and pinnacles on its screeching flight towards Caracas.

That train seemed to be a cross between a rocket and a kangaroo—one minute it appeared to be shooting horizontally across a fifty-foot canyon, and next second you'd swear it had bucked and reared clear off its track to a new level, two thousand feet upward. And, later in the evening, I watched it—that is to say I stared drop-jawed while it roared down the mountain-side like a grey thunder-bolt, and by some miracle or other actually stopped at its station. Instead of shooting clear on through the water-front district, and thence, non-stop, to the mouth of Mersey.

Synonymously, concerning transport through the Venezuelan jungle, there winds a fine broad concrete highway. Along this I plodded quite a way, wondering how and why it got there. Later, I learned, that it was what might be aptly termed just another "Government Bonanza." Now I cannot vouch for the following explanation, in fact, I can only peek over my spectacles like a mole-nosed old woman and whisper "but a little bird told me" . . . that a certain Venezuelan contractor one day discovered that he owned altogether too much cement—so, in order to lighten things, he (being a cousin or an aunt, or something to the Venezuelan Government) not only approached, but successfully conspired with those in power to manufacture that lovely concrete highway at the full expense of the dear old stone-blind public.

All of which may or may not be true; but from what I know of several present-day and very up-to-date governments, I would gauge the whole lewd business as highly probable.

Now I'm sorry, but La Guira offered very little for your present entertainment. I strove assiduously to extract something spiciful from it, but the electric train, the various smells and the concrete highway seemed its only "high spots," so in rather dismal mood I eventually wandered to a distant beach, and there laid my sodden mind and body beneath a mighty palm. And, dopy though I was, that mighty palm bestirred me, for I noticed that not only it, but all its brother and sister palms (some mightier, some less) for miles around grew both mightily and healthily in nothing more nourishing or palatable than deep blistering sand. How they could apparently thrive and bear such noble cocoanuts, with their roots literally cracking in that super-heated sand, and not a drop of water within ten miles, guzzled me severely.

Then I also noticed that cows were round about—cows lounging and champing in the sand. . . . "Dear, dear! I was in quite a turmoil. For how on earth could they distill warm luscious milk (don't you hate the foul miasmic stuff?) from dry cocoanut twigs and hot sand? Surely nothing liquid could possibly emerge from such sun-fried tropic tatters?

I was indeed greatly worried. So presently I walked up to a quiet and very amiable looking beast, and began patting it, and saying "Coo-boss, coo-boss—nice old cow," etc., and then, as she apparently brooded no maidenly resentment against my clumsy wooing, I edged up to her "creamery," and then gave her pinkest and most fulsome-looking "nips" a right per tweaking, and lo, the good milk flowed!

I was amazed. The most I had expected was a globule or two of condensed or malted milk—so when "Grade A" dripped warmly through my fingers, all I could do was wipe them on my pants and murmur "Hats off to the Cocoanut and the Cow."

Think it over, Cocoanuts and cows. They both spill milk—and they both can prosper happily, on nothingness, mixed with sand. Ah, dearie me. How strange is life. For, wherever you go, you meet "baby's best friend"—or the common cow. In the Panamanian Jungle she champed in quiet bliss; on the scrubby, muddy foothills at Pweto Columbia she punched solemnly on brambles midst the frogs; and now, on the beach at La Guira, she sits beneath the cocoanuts and sighs. What a charming beast. What a perfect lady—never complaining, and always ready to give this world her all! . . . Milk? Milk? Any milk today, madam? G'arn! Yer milk's got weevils! . . . but again, hats off to the cocoanut and the cow!

TRIAL DATE
TO BE FIXEDGreek Ship, Which Damaged
Ferry Slip, Now in Unknown Waters

VANCOUVER, Nov. 2 (CP).—Chief Justice Archer Martin announced in Admiralty Court today that he will fix a date for trial of an $8,500 action against the Greek ship Evmoros for damage done to the Canadian National car ferry slip at Ogden Point, Victoria, last December. The ship was blown from her moorings against the slip.

Arthur Alexander, counsel for the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway Company, Canadian National Railway, and Canadian National Realty, owners of the Ogden Point ferry slip, stated that the Evmoros, though of Greek registry, is owned by an English company.

TO REACH ENGLAND SOON
The ship is in unknown foreign waters at present, but her captain is expected to reach England shortly.

Alfred Bull, K.C., appeared for the vessel, which is alleged to have had aboard equipment which would have held her to the wharf if used.

In adjoining trial, a $4,800 wage claim against the fish packer Silver Horde, His Lordship ordered the Canadian Fishing Company to pay expenses of the claimant, Irwin

N. Cholberg, twenty-four, and his witness in coming to Vancouver from their home at Cascade Bay, near Shushanle on the north end of Vancouver Island.

The company, as holder of an $8,000 mortgage on the Silver Horde, is opposing Cholberg's wage claim.

DREDGE DAMAGED
Another case is the claim of the British Columbia Bridge & Dredging Company, Ltd., for $1,107 against the steam tug Grief for damage caused on April 22, 1936, when a boom of logs collided with the dredge Georgia in the channel approaching the Fraser River North Arm. Mr. Hossie and Ghent Davis are defending the action.

Another action scheduled for hearing arose from collision last June 13 between the Turenga, Frank R. Stuart's sailing yacht, and the Union steamship Lady Pam.

Stuart, who narrowly escaped drowning with his crew, seeks $9,000 for loss of his boat. He and the crew claim compensation for effects lost in the wreck, and injuries.

VERNON CITY
LOADS CARGO

British Freighter Calls at Ogden Point Piers for Lumber Shipment

Arriving alongside Ogden Point Piers, the British freighter Vernon City was loading lumber for overseas yesterday. During the past week or so, only the occasional vessel has been calling for lumber cargo, there being a scarcity of tonnage to handle the trade offering. Just when the situation will be remedied it is hard to determine at this time.

ON ANOTHER RUN
The Ms. Delfdyk, of the Holland America Line, has been transferred from the North Pacific service of the company to another ocean route, taking the place of one of the larger Holland America liners.

The Delfdyk is well known here, having been a regular caller at Victoria for a number of years.

FREIGHTER CALLED
Bringing in a consignment of old rags, the Frank Waterhouse freighter Chilliwack was alongside the wharf of the Sidney Roofing & Paper Company in the Inner Harbor yesterday. The rags, used in the manufacture of paper, came in from Seattle.

MAIDEN VOYAGE
Outward bound on her maiden voyage, the Grenanger, newest vessel of the Western Line, left San Francisco on Saturday last for Buenos Aires. The Grenanger has accommodation for twelve passengers.

CITY OF FLINT
The cargo aboard the City of Flint, according to information received at Washington, comprises more than fifty separate items typical of her usual cargo on this run. The cargo list included: foodstuffs, canned meats, flour, canned goods, apples, wax, lubricating oil, tractors, asphalt, pitch, grease, shade rollers, machinery, silk, commercial chemicals, abrasive, grains, disinfectants, feathers, rags, coffee, lumber, gauze, hair and wallboard.

The total cargo amounted to approximately 5,000 tons.

SHIPYARDS BUSY
All Danish shipyards are working at peak capacity, most of them having orders for one or more years ahead. New and second-hand tonnage is difficult to obtain from abroad, due to export restrictions in most countries. Under the circumstances and because of the steady rising freight rates, used tonnage of Danish registration is enjoying an increasing demand, and prices for second-hand vessels have jumped from 50 to 70 per cent since the outbreak of the European war.

ALASKA PACK
Falling far short of the previous year's total, the Alaska salmon pack for the season ended September 30 was 5,140,639 cases, according to the United States Bureau of Fisheries.

This was 1,986,329 cases below the same period of 1938. Bristol Bay led with a total pack of 1,871,985 cases. Practically the last of the pack arrived in Seattle lately on two vessels of the Alaska Steamship Company. The Tanana loaded 10,000 cases from Western Alaska, and the Dellwood put 1,200 cases from Southeastern Alaska ashore.

men were using 105 and 155-millimetre guns, but failed to cause "important damage."

French sources emphasized reports that German prisoners taken in patrol actions disclosed the presence of assault troops on the German side.

Several of the prisoners were reported to have been eighteen and nineteen-year-old youths trained to strict discipline for dangerous action. They belonged to elite units of the army, the Fernkampf.

(Havas News Agency reported a growing impression important developments might be expected in Alsace. It said this was bolstered by the fact Premier Daladier had just returned to Paris from a tour of inspection of that sector of the front. "The Premier proceeded directly to the War Ministry for a conference with General Maurice Gamelin, French commander-in-chief.")

An Italian having applied for citizenship, was being examined in the naturalization court. "Who is the President of the United States?" "Mr. Roosevelt." "Who is the vice-president?" "Mr. Garner." "If the President should go away, who then would act as President?" "Mr. Garner." "Could you be President?" "No." "Why?" "Mister, you 'scuse please, I vera busy—work de mine."

REORGANIZING
SHIP COMPANY

Federal Judge Approves of Set-Up and Sale of S.S.
President Madison

Approval of Federal Judge John C. Bowen of the reorganization of the American Mail Line in Seattle is expected to mean early entry of the company into trans-Pacific service.

At the same time, the court authorized sale of the S.S. President Madison to Philippine Islands interests represented by Jose Coljanguo.

The sale will be subject to approval of the Maritime Commission, of transfer of the vessel to operation under the Philippine flag, which it is expected will be forthcoming.

The $350,000 in cash received from the sale of the President Madison will be used as operating capital for the reorganized line. The approved plan provides for immediate issue of stock in exchange for claims of creditors. Application will be made to the Maritime Commission for a differential operating subsidy and arrangements undertaken for trading in the four remaining ships to the commission as down payment on four new passenger and freight carriers for Puget Sound to the Orient operation. These vessels are the President Grant, President Jefferson, President Jackson and President McKinley.

Six directors representing Class "A" stock suggested by the trustees were approved by the court as follows: Andrew Steers, executive vice-president of the Metropolitan Building Corporation; Lawrence Calvert, president of the San Juan Fish Company; Earl D. Doran, president, Doran Manufacturing Company; Edward Cunningham, vice-president and general manager, Pacific Marine Supply Company; Paul Pigott, president, Pacific Car & Foundry Company; and Samuel L. Barnes, director, Washington Mutual Savings Bank and Pacific National Bank.

GOVERNOR WILL VISIT WORKSHOP

Hon. Eric W. Hamber and
Mrs. Hamber to See
Poppies Made

Hon. Eric W. Hamber and Mrs. Hamber will pay their annual visit to the Red Cross Workshop, Johnson Street, at 11 o'clock this morning, where they will inspect the manufacture of wreaths and poppies after being shown over the premises.

On Saturday a street sale of poppies will be held, proceeds to be used to aid disabled ex-servicemen and their dependents.

Harold L. Butters, Remembrance Day committee headquarters manager, said yesterday that a sales staff of some 200 would be on the downtown streets tomorrow and the support of every citizen was solicited.

Members of the Victoria Girls Drill Team will invade office buildings to sell their poppies.

Advance sales of wreaths and poppies have been very good, Mr. Butters said. Large orders had been received from the Royal Canadian Navy and Work Point Barracks, it being the intention of the authorities there to provide every man with a poppy.

Headquarters of the Remembrance Day committee are at 743 View Street, adjoining Spencer's parking lot.

APPEALS FOR SUPPORT
AMMAN, Trans-Jordan, Nov. 2 (CP-Havas).—Premier Tewfik Abdul Huda, of Trans-Jordan, has appealed for continued support and loyalty to Great Britain from all the Arab countries as the best means of fostering their own national aims.

Birthday Tea
For Chapter
Is Canceled

At a meeting of Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., yesterday afternoon, it was decided not to hold the usual birthday tea on November 19, owing to the country being at war, and special activities being needed to assist in Red Cross and other war activities.

As it has been found impossible to include essays in the school curriculum, it was decided to offer prizes to the pupils in the entrance classes of the Sir James Douglas School making the greatest progress during the present school year.

The regent, Mrs. A. S. Christie, welcomed Mrs. J. T. Williams as a new member of the order. Mrs. W. N. Armstrong was appointed to represent the chapter in selling poppies on Poppy Day. Mrs. Christie was appointed delegate to the provincial semi-annual meeting in Nanaimo on November 8. The resignation of Miss Alice Terry as first vice-regent was accepted with great regret. Miss Terry is at present living in Vancouver and will retain her membership in the chapter.

The treasurer, Miss Herd, reported that sixty-eight articles of clothing and blankets had been given by the chapter for the evacuated British children. Miss Herd also reported a satisfactory cash balance.

The sympathy of the chapter was extended to Mrs. Ada Matheson in her illness and in the death of her

At Institute

The Connaught Seamen's Institute has become a second home to sailors visiting this port and it is with the hope that the standard and comfort of the home may be maintained that the Women's Guild is appealing to the public to patronize the annual birthday tea to be held at the institute on Friday afternoon, December 1.

Arrangements for the tea were made at the monthly meeting of the guild, held yesterday afternoon at the institute, with Mrs. Vernon Thomson, the president, in the chair. All proceeds from the party will go towards increasing the small fund now at the disposal of the institute.

A musical programme is being arranged by Mrs. Healy Kerr and Mrs. Leslie Gane.

Miss de Trafford reported knitted socks and sweaters on hand. Playing cards have been sent to the Tofino Lighthouse and two Norwegian sailors were given socks and sweaters before sailing away. Mrs. J. Quinn and Mrs. W. Finmore, reported on the hospital visits and the increased number of patients now in hospital.

One new member, Mrs. H. Cliff, was welcomed. Ships visited during the month numbered thirty-one, men registered, 141; cadets, forty-eight; letters mailed, fifty; literature, fifty-five; and beds used, six. Tea was served after the meeting by Mrs. J. McDonald and Mrs. McKenzie.

Her Majesty Shows Maternal Interest in Babies' Ward

LONDON, Nov. 2 (U.P.).—The Queen paid an informal visit to Queen Charlotte's Maternity Hospital and Midwifery Training School here today. She visited all the wards, peeped into baskets holding newborn infants, and had her fortune told.

The Queen, a patron of the hospital, spent a long time in the wards talking with employees. She was alarmed when Dr. Louis Carnac Rivett, the hospital's obstetric surgeon, picked up six-day-old Michael Phillips in one hand and held him before the Queen.

"Oh, be careful!" she exclaimed, adding, "I would not dare to hold him like that."

During her visit the Queen inspected the gasproof room into which all babies will be taken in the event of an air raid.

WHAT ARE VITAMINS?

Vitamins are like electric sparks, charging the dynamo which is equal to the body. There are seven members of the Vitamin Family. Each one has its special work to do in the growth and activities in the human system. Vitamins "A" and "C" protect the body against infections such as common Colds, Bronchitis and La Grippe. Vitamin "B" helps control the nervous and digestive system. "G" adds vitality. "D" helps build strong bones and saves teeth from early decay. "E" is chiefly concerned with reproduction. "F" and "K" are comparatively new and science is not prepared to state how great their values are. No one vitamin is sufficient unto itself in the body. They must all be combined to give the human perfection to which we are all striving. You owe it to yourself and country to keep physically fit. Avoid infection and common ailments by supplementing your daily diet with one of the complex vitamins listed below. Build health with vitamins. Start taking them now.

ARTICLE NO. 9

By Robt. G. Jackson, M.D.

HERE'S part of an interesting letter from Habana, Cuba, written July 17, 1939: "On March 30th I wrote you re 'Kofy-Sub' and how we would appreciate your Bulletin on the cure of constipation which is very prevalent here, and which we have already found your Dr. Jackson Meal and Kofy-Sub quickly relieve."

The remarkable effect Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal) Kofy-Sub and Lishu cereals and Kofy-Sub beverage have in difficult cases of constipation is the chief reason why these foods are sold by dealers in ten countries outside of Canada, even as far away as New Zealand, Australia and South Africa and very extensively in England and the United States and to individuals in all parts of the world. No salesman, no advertising have ever reached these countries. Yet travellers visiting Canada and Canadians visiting other lands have spread the reputation of these great foods and sales have automatically followed. Numerous sales of my books, especially "HOW TO BE ALWAYS WELL" (300,000 copies in the States alone and thousands of copies in England) have contributed to this remarkable interest in Dr. Jackson Meal, Kofy-Sub, Lishu and Kofy-Sub.

Yet there probably are a million persons in Canada suffering from constipation and other ills due to denatured and dead foods who could be marvelously benefited by use of these foods and Kofy-Sub. Yet they have never even tried them. They should read my book. Send $1.00 for "HOW TO BE ALWAYS WELL" to me at Toronto 9, Ont.

Women's Institute, and the vice-president, Mrs. M. A. Clark, presided, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Snape accompanied Dr. Jardine.

BRENTWOOD
The Brentwood Women's Institute gave the West Saanich school children a Halloween party on Tuesday afternoon at the hall, which was decorated in Halloween colors. Pumpkins, witches, cats and other novelties were used for table decorations. Rev. R. J. Pierce, and the teacher, Miss Newman, entertained the children during the afternoon. Mrs. A. Francis and Mrs. L. Hafer were in charge of the party.

LANGFORD
The Women's Institute Hall at Langford was the scene of a joyous Halloween party when the children of the school were entertained by the Women's Institute members, assisted by the Parent-Teacher Association. The committee in charge included Mesdames D. B. P. Bullen, H. F. Dack, R. J. Smith, J. M. Ritchie and Miss L. Savoy. After a sit-down supper, apples were distributed and games were enjoyed, under the supervision of Ernest Le Queune. Miss Rosemary Bullen played the piano for musical chairs and community singing. Douglas Plunkett showed interesting pictures, including those of the Royal Visit Gray Owl, the Queen Alexandra Solarium and a number of comics.

Y.P.S. NEWS

BELMONT UNITED
On Tuesday evening the members of the Belmont United Young People's Society paid a visit to Chinatown during the course of a Halloween social. Halloween games were played when the group returned to the church, and refreshments were served as basket lunches. George Bishop was in charge of the tour, and Helen McLellan, Lorraine Tait and Margaret Gladys Jaynes had charge of refreshments.

ST. ANDREW'S
In place of the regular meeting on Monday evening, members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Young People's Society were the guests of First United Church. During the evening games were played, the highlight of the evening being an exciting "ghost walk." Following a grand march, prizes were awarded for the prettiest costumes, the winners being Esther Anlow, Iona McDermott and Sam McCracken. During a sing-song, refreshments were served. With the forming of a friendship circle and singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the evening was brought to a close. On Sunday a social fellowship hour for young people will be held after the evening service, in the lecture room. Rev. J. L. W. McLean will be in charge. Rev. E. A. Thompson, chairman of the general assembly's board of Sunday school and young people's work will give an informal address. Light refreshments will be served. All young people are invited to be present.

A young candidate for the navy was being put through a general knowledge test by a board of admirals. "What kind of animals eat grass?" one of them asked. The candidate fidgeted and stared out of the window, but said nothing. The question was repeated, but he still remained dumb. "Surely," said one of the examiners, kindly, "you can answer a simple question like that? I will repeat it. What kind of animals eat grass?" "Animals!" gasped the boy. "I thought you said 'admirals'!"

COD-LIVER OIL—A GOOD BODY BUILDER

I have spoken before of a boy's preparatory school where perhaps ten of every 100 boys took cod-liver oil after each meal. The cod-liver oil seemed to give strength to ward off colds of nose, throat and chest.

These boys stated that they had been taking cod-liver oil during the cold months as long as they could remember. Their mothers told them that if they took cod-liver oil they would "grow big and strong." This was before the discovery of vitamins and that cod-liver oil strengthened the body and ward off ailments because of the vitamins A and D which it contains. Experiments on rats showed that if placed on a good or complete diet except the vitamin A, the diet did not contain vitamin A, growth stopped, weight was lost, and eye disease developed. By adding vitamin A to the diet, there was an increase in growth and the eye disease disappeared. Fortunately vitamin A is found in other substances than cod-liver oil—vegetable oils, root and green vegetables and in hushka of corn and grain, milk, eggs and butter.

What about vitamin D? The other vitamin in cod-liver oil? It is this vitamin that is so necessary to the growth of bone. When I graduated—in medicine rickets (bent bones) due to lack of lime, was a common sight on the street and in outdoor dispensaries. Today rickets is rare, due to the knowledge that vitamin D builds bone. While certain plants can be put under sun lamp and give more vitamin D, and likewise cows give more vitamin

D by use of sun lamps, the main source is still cod-liver oil. There are, of course, various foodstuffs—bread, milk and others—containing vitamin D. Also vitamin D tablets can be obtained at the drug stores. There is thus no reason why vitamin D cannot be obtained when necessary. It is unfortunate that vitamin D is not found in sufficient quantities in the everyday foods, most of which contain the other vitamins—A, B, C, E, and others. While adults do not need cod-liver oil to the same extent as children, it is a valuable help in ailments which cause loss of weight because it has so much food or fuel value. A tablespoonful of cod-liver oil contains 360 calories which is about one-quarter of the daily calories necessary for a woman and one-fifth for a man doing light work.

CHICAGO CAPTURES OPENING GAME FROM WINGS

Twenty Squads to Compete in League During the Season

Complete List of Basketball Teams Seeking City Honors This Year Announced—Senior "B" Division Draws Largest Entry—Dominoes And Senators in Senior "A" Section

Twenty cage squads will play this season in the many competitions arranged by the Victoria and District Basketball League, according to the first official list of entries announced last night by Treasurer Ernie Harris.

The senior "B" division has drawn the larger entry, six teams being lined up in the race for the city honors won last season by the Chinese Students. The next largest field is the intermediate "A" boys' section, where the flashy Eight Aces rule as champions.

Only two quintettes, Dominion, Canadian (the holders) and Senators, are in the city play-downs in the 1938-39 campaign, will compete for the senior "A" laurels. In the men's senior "C" section three quintettes are ready for action, while a quartette of cage squads will compete in the women's division.

ENTRY LIST
The complete entry list follows:
Senior "A" Men—Dominoes and Senators.
Senior "B" Men—Chinese Students, Hawks, Champion & White, Deslats, West Road and Wimp's Crescents.
Senior "C" Men—Commercial Bruisers, Mount Toimie and Royal Canadian Engineers.
Intermediate "A" Boys—Eight Aces, Caves, Bombers, All-Stars and Westerns.
Women—Cardinals, Palm Dairies, Unities and Adverts.

TOMORROW'S CARD
Tomorrow, at the Y.M.C.A., the Victoria and District Basketball League will present its second card of the season, and what a programme it promises to be. In reality it looks more like a post-season play-off series than the initial fixtures for the six competing quintettes.

Eight Aces, flashy intermediate "A" boys' quintette, will open their 1939-40 defence of their city title when they step on the floor to oppose Caves. The clubs were close together in the 1938-39 chase for the pennant, and tomorrow's opening clash promises to be a bang-up affair.

Victoria's two senior "A" women's cage squads will do battle in the second game on the attractive programme, which Coach Axel Kinnear's Palm Dairy quintette meets the Unities. There has been considerable gossip along the local cage front about the two clubs and close observers are giving Coach Wally

BOXLA DREW 18,000 FANS DURING YEAR

Lacrosse Enjoyed Successful Season at the Local Sports Centre

Box lacrosse is here to stay. And what's more, it is definitely established as a major sport on Victoria's Summer sports calendar. Approximately 18,000 fans gave the game their stamp of approval during the season just closed, and that alone is evidence of the sudden climb to popularity here of Canada's new national pastime.

Those are the facts disclosed in the report of W. C. Moreby, K.C., chairman of the Victoria Box Lacrosse Commission, and presented at the season's wind-up meeting held in the Belmont Building. The veteran commissioner traced at some length the me to take the game indoors at the Victoria Sports Centre, and showed by his financial statement that the season had been highly successful.

The association opened the 1939 playing term with liabilities on its hands, but last night was able to present a financial statement showing a profit over operating expenses of more than $500. Members attending the party passed a motion of confidence in the commission, and expressed their thanks for the capable way in which the affairs were handled.

ELEVEN SQUADS
Eleven squads, five intermediate, three juvenile and three midjet played in the league during the season. Seventy-two games were played at the Victoria Sports Centre, thirty-seven of those being intermediate fixtures. Exhibition matches were played with St. Catharines, Powell River and Nanaimo squads.

Chairman Moreby reported that there were a number of injuries during the season, and that bills amounting to approximately $235 were outstanding for hospital and medical attention. After lengthy discussion, the delegates decided to set aside the amount needed to pay such obligations, and further decided that the balance of the money be left in the treasury until the start of next season. At that time it is suggested to grant an equal amount to the various clubs for the purchase of equipment.

With a view to getting an early start next season, the delegates decided that the annual meeting should not be held later than the third week in February. Voting power at the party, it is proposed, will be limited to two delegates from each club.

ALERT SQUAD GIVEN DINNER

Lacrosse Team Entertained By R. M. Williams During the Week

Members of the Alert Service lacrosse team and their friends were the guests of R. M. Williams, sponsor of the team, and Mrs. Williams, at a delightful dinner party at the Mayfair Cafe, Wednesday evening. After dinner Mr. Williams spoke happily of the record established by the team during the past season, and told of the pleasure he had experienced in his work amongst the boys. Buzz Brown, when called upon as captain of the team, spoke of the splendid co-operation of the players, the sponsor and the coaches, remarking that he, too, had enjoyed his association with the team. Don Smith and H. B. Sargison also spoke, the latter giving the record for the season of each player, and that of the team.

The party then moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, 1043 Parkington Street, where they were entertained by Frank Merrifield, who performed a number of mystifying sleight-of-hand tricks. The remainder of the evening was given over to dancing. After refreshments were served and a hearty vote of thanks passed in appreciation of the hospitality and enjoyment provided by Mr. and Mrs. Williams, the guests sang "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" to bring a very happy gathering to a close.

The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Buzz Brown, Mr. and Mrs. H. Cockin, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. Plater, Mr. and Mrs. Ian McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sargison, Miss Ellen Worth, Miss Betty Clark, Miss Joan Toms, Miss Gladys Cook, Miss Pat Kelly and Miss Jean Sargison. Messrs. H. Thompson, E. Holyoak, Jim Pickford, W. Williams, D. Coates, G. SHORT CIRCUIT STIRS UP FANS

Totalizer's Antics Causes Bay Meadows Better to Rush for Wicket

SAN MATEO, Cal., Nov. 2 (AP)—When the electric totalizer at Bay Meadows short-circuited yesterday and showed $1,890 in non-existent bets on a 30-1 longshot, wise boys rushed to get aboard the win wagon. The odds dropped to 4-5 in short order, but the longshot, Green Tea, finished next to last.

The $10 selling machine rattled up "odds" of 180 to 1 in the first race when wires short-circuited. The action of better, who thought they saw a coup in the making and bought tickets on Green Tea, boosted the price on every other horse in the race.

Stroud, a legitimate 4-1 shot, was the winner, paying $20.40, $5.40 and $3.40. Immunity finished second. Night Princess third.

The operators of the recording "total" machine made good the $1,890, paying it into the win pool.

Marquart in Direct Line For Big Mix

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Promoter Mike Jacobs announced today Billy Marquart, sensational young Winnipeg lightweight, who scored a five-round technical knockout over Billy Beaudouin last night, is in direct line for a shot at Champion Lou Ambers' crown.

Jacobs said Marquart probably would get another tune-up fight before tackling Ambers.

Jack Hurley, Marquart's manager, said he favored the tune-up match for his batter before attempting a title try and suggested Lew Jenkins or Mike Beloise, both leading lightweight contenders, as possible opponents. Jacobs' office said the fight may be put on the Madison Square Garden card for December 1, when Ambers tackles the welterweight champion, Henry Armstrong.

A little yearning is a dangerous thing.

Marquart in Direct Line For Big Mix

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Promoter Mike Jacobs announced today Billy Marquart, sensational young Winnipeg lightweight, who scored a five-round technical knockout over Billy Beaudouin last night, is in direct line for a shot at Champion Lou Ambers' crown.

Jacobs said Marquart probably would get another tune-up fight before tackling Ambers.

Jack Hurley, Marquart's manager, said he favored the tune-up match for his batter before attempting a title try and suggested Lew Jenkins or Mike Beloise, both leading lightweight contenders, as possible opponents. Jacobs' office said the fight may be put on the Madison Square Garden card for December 1, when Ambers tackles the welterweight champion, Henry Armstrong.

Cantatrice II Is Victor in English Cesarewitch Race

Defeats Cheerful Star by Four Lengths at Newmarket Track—Black Speck Finishes Third, a Length Farther Back—Field Is Only Two Short of Record Set in 1862

NEWMARKET, England, Nov. 2 (CP).—Sir Alfred Butt's Cantatrice II, a filly by Pilear out of Queen Iselt, today won the Cesarewitch, defeating F. Haslam's Cheerful Star by four lengths. James Rank's Black Speck was third, a length farther back.

Cantatrice II started at 7 to 2 and Cheerful Star and Black Speck each at 20 to 1. A field of thirty-five ran, Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen's Finish having been withdrawn at the post. Other late scratches were Verjus and Brocanteur.

The race, originally scheduled for October 25, was postponed on account of the war. The distance was cut from the traditional two miles, two furlongs, to two miles, twenty-four yards. It was run over the Summer course as the Winter circuit is being used for military purposes.

The win was another triumph for French-bred racers as Cantatrice II won in a canter, covering the distance in 3:32.1-5. The field was only two short of the record set in 1862.

The French filly, regarded as "a handicap certainty," raced to the front below the distance, increased her lead on the rising ground and easily held off Cheerful Star's challenge. Fulmo was fourth, Morar fifth and Sierra Nevada last.

EXHIBITION WILL HELP GAME HERE

Increase in City Chess Club Membership to Follow Exhibition By Koltanowski

Increased interest in chess was foreseen here yesterday by L. Partington, president of the City Chess Club, following the exhibition Wednesday evening at the Dominion Hotel by George Koltanowski, world champion blindfold player.

Of the twenty-one players who participated in the matches with the thirty-five-year-old Belgian exponent, many were non-members of the local club. A canvas made by W. B. Christopher, secretary, and other officers of the City Chess Club, proved very successful, many indicating their willingness to join the organization.

The increase in membership could not come at a better time. President L. Partington stated. With the city championship scheduled to start in a few days, the addition of new players will make the event more interesting and perhaps, who knows, a new chess king will be named to succeed A. G. Moody, present titleholder. Entries for the city championship will close this evening at the club quarters, Langley Street, or with W. B. Christopher, care of Roger Monteith's store, View Street.

Those playing against George Koltanowski were: A. G. Moody, L. Partington, N. R. Stewart, H. Henderson, A. G. Higgs, T. Kay, S. Turner, P. Stratton, H. Nancarrow, J. Zwinger, E. L. McMicking, J. D. Christie, D. B. Munn, C. A. Searles-Jones, J. Maynard, A. J. Hopkins, H. S. Jordan, J. R. George, O. Jones, A. G. Stroud and F. W. Plant.

Theatre Shows Fine Display of Chrysanthemums

One of the finest collection of chrysanthemums on the Island is at present on display in the lobby of the Oak Bay Theatre. The blooms were given by Mrs. Ray Castle, wife of the manager, and include some rare Japanese varieties and others not common around Victoria.

Mrs. Castle cares for the chrysanthemums herself, and has at her home almost 300, ranging from small multi-flowered plants to ones having single blooms over ten inches in diameter.

The flowers will be on display at the theatre for several weeks to come, new ones being substituted at intervals. Some of the varieties showing are Mount Fuji, Yellow Rayon, Telford Ivory, T. W. Pock, Majestic, and a new Japanese variety, Yamato Nishiki.

FOOTBALL SCHOOL

Sir,—As you know, we have started a Football Coaching School in Victoria. A great deal of interest has been taken in the school and at the present time we have 110 boys, ranging from the ages of eight to seventeen, on the enrolment list. We have all the senior officials behind the move and already have received four footballs from the Saturday and Wednesday Leagues. Now we are asking anybody who is interested in helping the boys to play the game to either sponsor a team or give a donation of sweaters or money, which will be used to buy the same. Any person who wants to assist may get in touch with the secretary at G.1813, or at 997 Fort Street, or communicate with W. Pynn at the Athletic Park. Anyone who is willing to referee the games on Saturdays morning is also asked to get in touch with the secretary. This letter is written on behalf of the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association and the Coaching School.

Sincerely yours,
AXEL C. KINNEN, Secretary to local commission.

"BLACKMAIL" AT DOMINION TODAY

Edward G. Robinson Is Star of Thrillingly Entertaining New Screen Drama

With a thrillingly entertaining story, plus spectacular background, scenes of intense, dramatic action sweep across the screen in "Blackmail," starring Edward G. Robinson. This film will start today at the Dominion Theatre.

In vivid outline against roaring oil well fires, the love of a man for his wife, and an unjust incarceration in a jungle prison camp, Robinson portrays a vitally new characterization which is perhaps the most dynamic role he has brought to the screen since he first blazed his way into public notice.

LOUIS HAYWARD PLAYS DUAL ROLE IN PICTURE

The full horror of the mask in which Louis XIV of France encased his twin brother, Philippe, and then condemned him to life imprisonment in the Bastille was brought home to Louis Hayward, who plays both roles in "The Man in the Iron Mask," the Edward Small production for United Artists release, which is the next attraction to come to the Plaza Theatre.

Atlas, when he developed a bad attack of copper poisoning. The heavy mask, built by experts, was lined with copper to smooth off the inside and afford Hayward some measure of comfort which was not designed for the unfortunate Philippe.

An incomparably fine cast, headed by a starring trio consisting of Gary Cooper, Ray Milland and Robert Preston, combined with an heroic, rousing, action-filled story of three gallant brothers who find adventure in the French Foreign Legion, marks Paramount's brilliant version of "Beau Geste," now showing at the Atlas Theatre, as one of the most thrilling adventure dramas to come to the screen.

"On Your Toes," the Theatre musical hit, will end today at the Capitol Theatre. Zorina, the star of the recent Broadway hit, "I Married an Angel," has the starring role in the film, with the supporting cast headed by Eddie Albert.

George Douglas plays the role of the Don in Republic's Three Mesquiteers Western, "The Night Riders," which is now playing at the Columbia Theatre. He is a brother of Melvyn Douglas, film star. John Wayne, Ray Corrigan and Max Terhune play the Three Mesquiteers.

Sidney Higgins, of Republic public screen's family of Higginses, known in real life as Russell Gleason, turns romantic in the latest of the family series, "Should Husbands Work?" which is now showing at the Plaza Theatre.

Young English star who was last seen in Alfred Hitchcock's "The Lady Vanishes," reaches stardom in his second screen role. He is cast with Elizabeth Bergner in "Stolen Life" which is now playing at the Oak Bay Theatre. The picture, which was directed in England by Paul Czinner for Paramount release, is an emotional drama of twin sisters who fall in love with the same man.

Trading Sluggish In Stock Market On Wall Street

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP).—Stock market traders put on a late buying party for the aircraft today but left many recent favorites on the outside looking in.

The tardy revival of the aviation was attributed to the brightening outlook, as the trading day closed, for quick passage for the Administration's arms embargo repeal measure which was expected to start immediate heavy shipments of planes to belligerent nations, barred under the existing law.

At the same time, stocks of other companies which stand to benefit by sales of war materials abroad were more or less indifferent, much to the puzzlement of some bullish forces.

Handicaps to a general rise were seen in continuance of talk in financial circles of a possible let-down soon in the ascending industrial curve; the labor situation, stressed by the Chrysler union dispute; after the embargo shelving, and fears increased manufacturing costs along the line might result from higher wage rates and expanding raw material prices.

Aside from occasional brief flurries, dealings were sluggish throughout. Transfers totaled 845,710 shares against 794,370 the day before. The Associated Press average of sixty issues was off 1 of a point at 52.3. This composite has finished unchanged or lower in every session since October 25.

Some industrial issues advanced today in an otherwise static bond market.

United States Treasuries in general declined on limited dealings, the top setback being 19-32 cent.

Among the foreign Government dollar issues virtually the only gainers were securities of France and Italy. Others were largely ignored and mainly declined.

Transactions totaled $6,618,650 face value, compared with $6,597,550 yesterday.

Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:

Thirty Industrials, 151.56; off 0.04.

Twenty utilities, 33.65; off 0.11.

Fifty bonds, 121.12; up 0.07.

Total sales, 850,000.

CRIME TEARS ON CAROLYN WELLS

CHAPTER XXXV

"Knowing the plans of this house, as you do, tell me if you can conceive of any way the criminal could have got into this room."

"There is no way. After my brother locked his door into the hall, nobody could have come in here, by any possibility."

"Why are you so sure?"

"Because I know so well how the house is built. And you know your- self, there is no way an intruder could enter. Not by a window. That proves itself. The hall door is out of the question. Those three doors in the next wall open into a bath- room and two closets. There re- mains but this door. In the same wall as the hall door."

"And does that door open into the hall?"

"Oh, no. It would do so, but the end of the hall was cut off to make a room, as you see."

Cornelia went to the door and opened it, disclosing an attractive room, like a small sitting room.

"This was Harley's wife's room, but after her death, he had it made into a pleasant little place to read or write, both for the family and guests."

"This is the door with the odd bolt, will you explain it?"

"There's little to explain. My brother dislikes people coming into his room at any time. So he had the regular knob taken off that door and substituted that spring bolt, which can be drawn from his room, but not from this little sitting room. As you see, there is no knob, lock or handle of any sort on the sitting-room side. That must show you positively that the intruder could not have come in that way."

Stone tried the door several times. He could easily pull back the bolt, go through the doorway, and watch the door swing slowly shut behind him. Then he would tap on the door, and Cornelia would admit him.

"For what purpose did your brother use this door?" he said.

"None at all in the Fall and Winter. In the Summer he used to prop it open with a doorstop because its very large window brought a cooling breeze through to his bedroom. Whereas, if he opened his own windows wide, the breeze was too strong for him, and brought on his laryngitis."

"This door was always closed at night, except in Summer?"

"Yes. I asked Elkanah if he was sure it was bolted last night, and he was very certain that it was."

"Then, Miss Cornelia, I shall have to agree that I am confronted by the problem of the locked room. If I do not solve it, it will be the first one of its kind to elude me."

Later on he asked: "Shall you remain in this house, Miss Cornelia?"

"I don't know yet. I've had no chance to consult with Craig and Tom. I shall agree to whatever they want. If they should prefer to stay here, I will be glad to keep house for them, and if not, if they prefer to go to New York or else- where, I shall agree to whatever plans they make. I have a notion that they will like me to remain here and keep the house open, and let them be free to come and go as they wish. Of course, my brother told me about his engagement to Miss Verne, before he announced it to the others, and he wanted me to stay here and superintend the house as I have been doing. That plan suited me for I could look after the comfort of the pair far better than they could do it them- selves. And the arrangement suited him and Miss Verne, too, so the future looked very rosy. And now, oh, Mr. Stone, who could have killed that splendid man, and why? But, and I hope you see it as I do, there is only one way to look. And that is toward the men of the village, who were working with him on the improvement plans. When they first began, they were so friendly and helpful, and had only the interests of the village at heart. Later they all changed, and there were quarrels and slanders and general ill-feeling, all directed against my brother, who was the originator of the plan and who proposed to put into it more money than all the rest put together."

"And you think that in some one of these disgruntled men, the ill- feeling became magnified to the point of murder?"

"That's just what I do think. One or two of the men would be capable of such an awful thing; because of their ignorant minds, their low cunning. I hope I am not wickedly unforgiving, but if one of the lot did kill my brother, I would rejoice to know that he was punished by the hands of right and justice."

You cannot be blamed for that feeling. But how in the name of common sense, did that man gain entrance to this room?"

"You know that question is futile, Mr. Stone."

Now, I am going to insist on your going for a rest, and will you please send Hetty to me here?"

"Yes, indeed. You're not suspect- ing her?"

"Oh, no. I'm hoping her shrewd observation can tell me of some happenings or some bits of gossip that will give me a hint. Then, I must investigate that village com- mittee in earnest. You want me to find the criminal, Miss Cornelia?"

"Oh, yes, I do. I hope I'm not wickedly vindictive, as I said, before, but I loved my brother so much, and I shall miss him sadly."

"And Miss Verne? She does not show deep grief over her loss."

"I confess I don't understand the girl. She was so lovely with Harley last night, and now, as you say, she's very quiet, but she says no word of sorrow, even to me alone. I will go now, and I will send Hetty. Please don't let any suspicion attach to Craig. If anybody breathes a word of blame on that boy, I can- not stand it!"

Tom: Are you able to hang on to your money?

Don: Nope; my wife is a bit stronger than I am.

"But I used to know you in Wigan, Mr. Tasker."

"May be, but I cannot remember every stupid face."

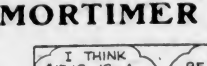

"Can't you? Well, I can, you see."

"UH-OH! THERE GO TA' FALSE TEETH!"

TO TAKE STOCK OF HIDES AND LEATHER

Ottawa, Nov. 2 (AP)—According to information reaching Maurice Samson, hides and leather administrator, Canadian leather and shoe industries are well equipped to meet both normal and wartime demand. Nevertheless, it was announced today, arrangements have been completed, on the recommendation of Samson, for a monthly census of all stocks of hides and leather in the Dominion. The plan is under the aegis of the wartime prices and trade board.

SUBURBS HAD LESS BUILDING

Esquimalt Only Municipality To Show Increase in October This Year

Building in the suburban districts surrounding Victoria fell off considerably during the month of October this year as compared with the same month in 1938. It is noticeable, however, that the value of dwellings was greater in Saanich during October, 1939, than in October, 1938. This was not the case in Oak Bay, where the number of dwellings and their values were less than in 1938.

For the first ten months of the year, also, both in Saanich and Oak Bay the values of buildings fell off somewhat in 1939 as compared with the same period in 1938.

In Esquimalt, however, the situation was very much altered. There was more building during October of this year, than in the same month of 1938, while the ten months of 1939 year show a decided increase in building over the corresponding period of 1938. This, moreover, applies only to buildings which must be registered in the Municipal Hall in Esquimalt, and does not take in the added activity shown in the naval and the military establishments which has been very pronounced this year.

DETAILED FIGURES

In Saanich during October, 1939, there were thirty permits taken out, with a value of $24,705. Of these ten were for dwellings valued at $20,600. In October, 1938, there were forty permits with a value of $38,076. Of these, sixteen were for dwellings valued at $32,858. For the first ten months of the year there were 433 permits with a value of $489,965, and of these 208 were for dwellings valued at $430,930. In 1938 for the same period there were 463 permits with a value of $492,015, of which 234 were for dwellings valued at $334,743.

In Oak Bay during October, 1939, there were eleven permits with a value of $17,429, as compared with twenty-two permits in the same month of 1938, with a value of $38,076. For the first ten months of 1939 there were permits to the value of $383,691, as compared with $427,990 in the first ten months of 1938.

In Esquimalt in October, 1939, the value of permits was $11,946, as compared with $5,610 in October, 1938. For the first ten months of 1939 permits in Esquimalt reached a total of $62,597, compared with $49,766 in 1938.

COW CHARGES ARE DROPPED BY CITY

By-Law Covering Keeping of More Than Two Animals Conflicts With Municipal Act

Charges against five persons of unlawfully keeping more than two cows each within the city limits were withdrawn before Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court yesterday morning.

Arthur J. Patton represented the majority of defendants. Claude L. Henson, city prosecutor, asked for leave to withdraw the charges when he pointed out that a city health by-law covering the charges did not conform with the Municipal Act in regard to the words "cows" and "bovine animals."

Patton L. Shaw, city solicitor, indicated later that the by-law in question would be amended accordingly.

What Today Means

"SCORPIO"

If November 3 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., from 3:45 to 5:45 p.m., and from 6:45 to 10:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 10:45 a.m. to 10:45 a.m., from 6:45 to 8:45 p.m., and from 10:45 p.m. until midnight.

Try not to be unpleasantly fastidious, for pernickety people who turn up their noses on the slightest provocation will be responsible for most of this day's disagreeable situations. Look for the reason back of anyone's attempt to gain time, if his or her immediate decision might be helpful in the advancement of your interest. Excessiveness justifies distrust, for whatever condition prompts it is not apt to be advantageous to those who are subjected to it. Only frankness and honesty are likely to be productive of good results. It will be the prudishly prim, straight-laced type of individual who is most likely to stir up most of this day's troubles, so be on your guard against them. Married and engaged couples, as well as those who are under the influence of Cupid's magic, might have to exercise a great amount of patience, especially in the way of listening to any explanation, or excuse that probably will be offered to them.

If you are a woman and November 3 is your birthday, you probably have a winning smile, an attractive personality and an eloquent tongue. Your ability to talk well may be one of your most valuable assets. You should have little trouble in influencing people, as you ought to be very magnetic. Your pride is to be very magnetic. Your pride is to be very magnetic.

Nevertheless, it was announced today, arrangements have been completed, on the recommendation of Samson, for a monthly census of all stocks of hides and leather in the Dominion. The plan is under the aegis of the wartime prices and trade board.
